Aug 31, 1991

Dear Kathryn:

I am enclosing 2 ancestor charts on my Clark Co Ky lines. On the backs I have what I know about the Bunch and Steele families. If you have anything on them or know anyone doing research I would appreciate knowing.

I have dates on Haggards but don't know anything about them as far as what they did, how they lived etc. I think Bartlett & Martha Haggard raised David Steele and his sisters and brothers. Do you have any information on this.

I was glad to hear from you. Any information will be greatly appreciated. Annie is doing fine

Sincerely,
Marilyn Freeman

(Inscription on stone)

Feb: 11: 13 "these all died in the faith"

Sarah never married. She was making a feather picture and had all the feathers dyed and all laid out separated. Grandpa came along and blew them away. She whipped him and he was always afraid of her.

She knew that she was going to die and wanted a shroud. Mrs. Hina Clark (Mr. Clark's mother) and Cousin Martha Pace drove to Winchester in horse and buggy to get the materials, they were letting the bars to the gate down at the house when she died.
